dedication

Ms. Michelle Rossi

As the advisors to the Class of 2009, both Ms. Michelle Rossi and Ms. Lindi Donelson have been invaluable over the past four years. They helped us realize as freshmen the importance of raising money for our Junior and Senior Proms, the Lock-In, and many other events. By organizing fundraisers and dances, as well as other forms of fundraising, they have done everything they can to make our events the best they could be. The senior class thanks them for everything.

Ms. Lindi Donelson

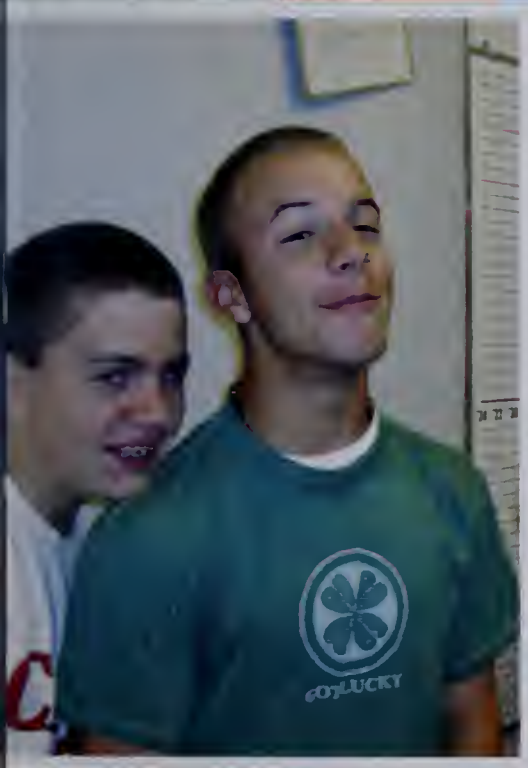
Mr. Richard Gillis

The senior class would also like to recognize Mr. Richard Gillis for his love of math and ability to pass that love down to so many of his students. The Class of 2009 is proud to leave the halls of B-R alongside him.

In memoriam

Kevin Preach, a 2007 B-R graduate, passed away on February 7, 2009, from injuries he sustained while fighting in Afghanistan. Kevin was known for his bright smile and contagious laughter. His family and friends will always remember his sense of humor and ability to make everyone feel comfortable in any situation. His lifelong dream was to become a Marine, serving his country. He showed tremendous bravery and honor, and will always be in our hearts and thoughts.

in memoriam



When it comes to describing Matt Cream, a countless number of words come to mind. Whether on the field or in the classroom, "Creamo" and his sense of humor always stood apart. He was a star athlete and demonstrated his intelligence and hard work ethic in the classroom. His welcoming demeanor attracted a large group of friends, who all loved him dearly. On July 2, 2007, Creamo was unexpectedly taken from us in a tragic car accident. However, he is forever in the memory of all those that he touched.

fo•cus: (verb) to pay particular attention to, to concentrate on

The past four years of high school have rushed by, just as our teachers and parents promised at the beginning of freshman year. To make it easier to pull memories from this blur, each section of the 2009 edition serves to focus in on the smaller aspects of our years at B-R, like our mentors, academics, extracurriculars, experiences, and most importantly, our friends. Together, these have formed the memories we will hold dear for the rest of our lives.

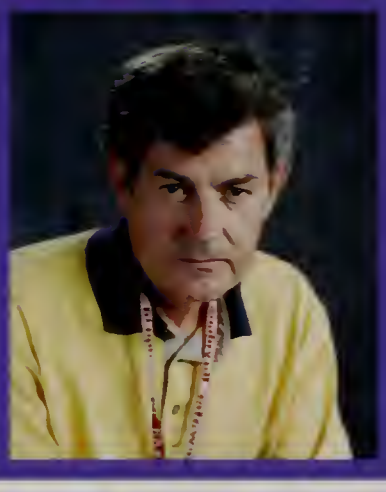
George Guasconi

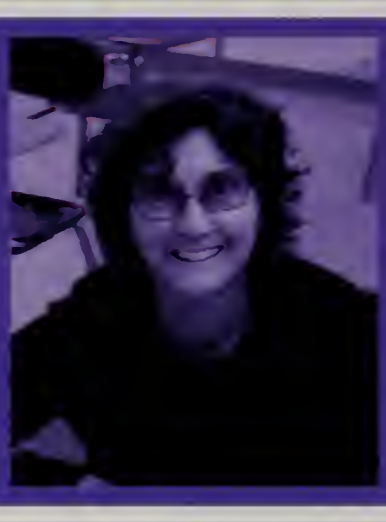
Mr. George Gusconi, Superintendent of Bridgewater- Raynham Regions School District, is leaving this year. A Bridgewater native who has been through the system himself, he has been with us through the good and the bad and we can truly say will be greatly missed.

Richard Gillis



A dedicated math department head, Mr. Richard Gillis is retiring this year after many years of pushing students with his tough but witty attitude. He will be remembered as the ultimate hall monitor.

Marie Burke



Mrs. Marie Burke is retiring this year after many years of teaching spanish. Her passion for the language and friendly demeanor will never be forgotten by her students.

Gerald Cunniff

A well known coach, guidance counselor, and comedian, Mr. Gerald Cunniff left the B-R community towards the end of this past year. His years of dedication and tremendous school spirit have left a legacy that will forever stay with our school.

from the superintendent

To the Class of 2009:

Graduation is an important benchmark in your lives. it is both an end and a beginning. As you celebrate the accomplishments of high school, look forward to the many opportunities ahead of you. You are prepared to become successful, productive members of a global society.

Bridgewater-Raynham Regional High School has provided each of you the necessary skills upon which to build your future. You may go forth with the confidence of your teachers, families, and yourselves into a world that holds limitless possibilities.

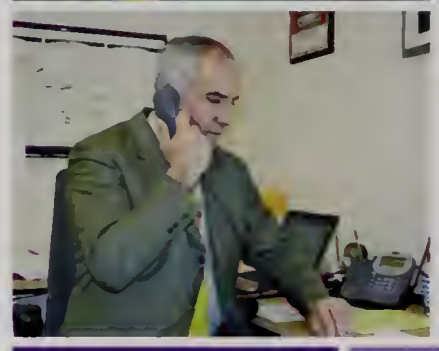
Your education has taught you the value of learning to work and live with people different from yourself. The hope of making the world a place where people from different ethnic groups, cultural backgrounds, and religions can live together in harmony rests in your hands. One of the greatest gifts of public education is the value of diversity. Our community, country, and democracy depend on it.

On behalf of the Bridgewater-Raynham Regional School Committee, I wish you all the best in your future endeavors. Make us proud!

Congratulations to the Class of 2009!

Jaqueline B. Forbes, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools

from the principal



To the Class of 2009, I bid you farewell. You have been true leaders during a time in this school's history where character and teamwork were never more important. We have worked side by side during a time of transition and you were integral to the smooth opening of our wonderful new school. You have represented your school and community well in events near and far and have shown a wonderful sense of unity and compassion for each other when times have been good and when we have had to overcome obstacles.

A principal is only as strong as the supporting cast around him, and you have proven to be a tremendous group of individuals who have grown each year. B-R is a better place for having had you a part of it and I hope that the classes to come will build off the leadership you have provided our community. You are the Class of 2009 and you have made the people of both Bridgewater and Raynham very proud. I wish you the best!

Sincerely,

The team has become like a family, looking out for one another and pushing each other to improve each day, every day discovering new ways to have fun. The season has seen its laughs and tears, but every runner, especially seniors Julianne Benvie, Samantha Bissonette, Colleen Buckley, Jillian Cavanaugh, Laura Delorenzo, and Kelly Meagher, has managed to remain strong and optimistic. The highlight of the season was the strong victory against Dartmouth.

Led by senior captains Maggie Wigley, Michelle Ives, and Lisa Boyer, the field hockey team finished with an 11-4-3 record and qualified for the state tournament. Seniors Jenna Manning, Melanie Frazier, Sarah MacLellen, Christine Hogan, Felicia Sylvia, Courtney Kuzmich, and Allison Cournoyer all brought great leadership to the team, helping to finish second in the Old Colony League meet and prove that experience and tenacity can lead to a successful season.

golf

The season has been successful for the team, a group of dependable and focused golfers who show respect for the game, their teammates, and their opponents. Their most proud moment was unexpectedly defeating Attleboro High School in an away match which clinched them a spot in the M.I.A.A. State Tournament. Although they will lose one varsity starter, the golf team looks forward to next season.

girls' basketball

The team returned to the state tournament for a second straight year. Nicole Marotta ran the show as point guard, while Sam Marotta and Kelly O'Neill provided a steady scoring threat. With their relentless defense and overall hustle, Laura Callinan and Lauren Kelly shut down top opponents, and Rachel Chuckran and Theresa Burgess stood out for their strong rebounding and intense play. Nicole Silvia and Michelle Myles provided consistent effort and veteran leadership.

The team continued to improve this season, finishing with a 3-3 record. The boys lost two meets by the infuriating score of 51-49, but captains Paul Bonitto, Ryan Garcia, Robert Cabral, and Drew Larson led the team to a victory at the OCL Conference in Boston, where Kyle Reid qualified for Division 1 States. This was the first conference championship for the team, which has struggled since Coach Wilcox took over in 2006.

girls' winter track

With a 5-1 record for the season, the 2009 girls' track team is surely going into the record books. After a 3-1 victory at the OCL Conference in Boston, the girls were asked to play at the MSTCA Invitational, where the Long Jump Relay Team earned the title of first place. This victory was definitely the best end of the season anyone could have wished for.

art club

The art club aims to keep creative activities flourishing even past the ring of the dismissal bell. Each week, they focus on a new project to complete, and beautify the school with their seasonal murals and decorations.

foreign language club

Celebrating world cultures and diversity, the foreign language club plans events such as the Dia de Los Muertos in October and the annual field trip to the Spanish Dancers of the Americas show in Boston. President Mollie Principe over her four years as a member, has brought the world and all its wonders to B-R. She will be dearly missed next year.

library docents

Whether they are reshelving books or helping students locate a reference, the library docents volunteer their study periods to help the library run smoothly.

math team

The dedicated members of the math team consistenly work on problems from every area of the immense subject, competing in meets across the region. They also help prepare for the annual Pi Day in March.

mock trial

Each year, the mock trial team is delivered a new case that they must take part in over the course of the year, meeting with other schools to test their skills.

national honors society

Consisting of seniors inducted during both junior and senior year, the National Honors Society combines high academic expectations with community service, creating well-rounded individuals that will go on to serve the community in whatever they do.

science olympiad

From physical science and biology to chemistry and physics, the science olympiad team memorizes hundreds of facts in every branch of science, competing in science olympiad meets across the state.

gay-straight alliance

The gay-straight alliance works to foster a supportive environment for gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender youth during the difficult high school years. They sponsor awareness programs such as AIDS Awareness day and organize guest speakers and performers, such as L.G.B.T. acting troupe that performed this winter.

school climate group

The school climate group works consistently to make B-R a safer and more enjoyable learning and socializing environment for everyone. Their anti-smoking campaigns are their most prominent forms of involvement, but they are always at work behind the scenes, working with administrators.

Aimed at preserving and restoring the environment for years to come, the Y.E.S.S. club has brought the "green" trend to B-R, organizing a paper recycling program, school grounds beautifying programs, and an annual Green Living Seminar.

y.e.s.s. environmental club

Staying on top of the numerous day-to-day events at B-R is no easy task, but The Trojan Times manages to not only deliver current news, but also entertain with movie reviews, political cartoons, and specialty columns. The skills of Senior Editor Jay Dev and Cartoonist Jennifer Kelton will be hard to replace next year, and both seniors will be dearly missed.

school newspaper

The staff of Unitas works tirelessly each year to present B-R with the best possible yearbook. From sorting pictures to designing layouts, every member has a duty. Editors James Walsh and Jessica Noones will be missed for their three years of hard work.

Analyzing the current political situation in the U.S is the main focus of the civics club. Members have been especially busy this year with the election of Barack Obama as President of the United States.

culinary club

As an extension of culinary arts class, the culinary club brings the magic of cooking to any of those interested. The gingerbread house contest each year is one of the most anticipated events in the school.

Club Members

TJ2

The members of the school commitee advisory board work to observe the current school situation and advise the school commitee in their various decisions. Their role has especially important in the past few years, with the numerous budget cuts that have afflicted B-R.

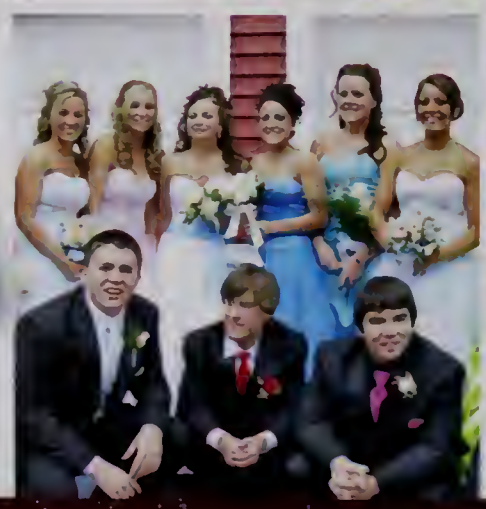
Senior Prom
the second of May



may 2, 2008

Ever since we can remember, this night was promised to be one we would never forget. And it was. From the moment we walked in to the last dance of the evening, our Junior Prom was something that will, in our memories, live on vividly forever.

april 20-28, 2008

From Taormina to Rome, the Colosseum to the ruins of Pompeii, Mr. Hayhurst and Ms. Oliari bravely led a group of twenty students through the Italian peninsula during spring break. While the plumbing may not have always worked, everyone had a fantastic time, taking in the rich culture and even climbing into the center of an active volcano.

november, 2008

In preparation for the annual pep rally, B-R celebrated an entire week of school spirit. Decades Day, Color Day, Twin Day, Jersey Day, and Western Day helped everybody bond with their class while at the same time get excited for the big day.

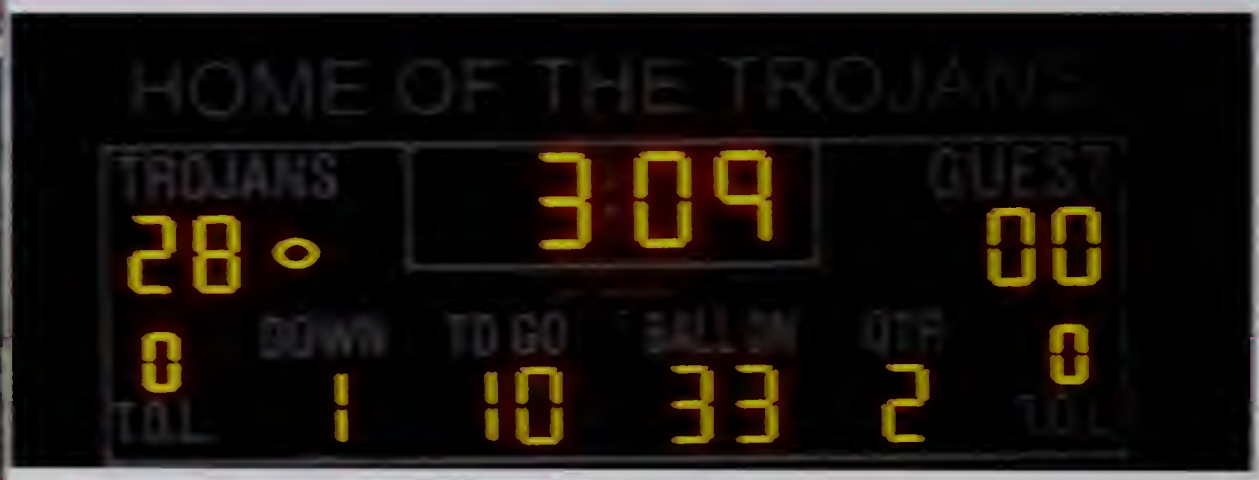
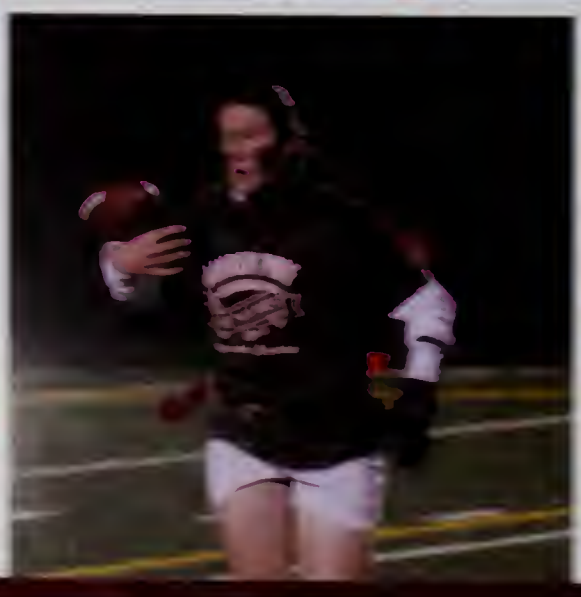
powder puff

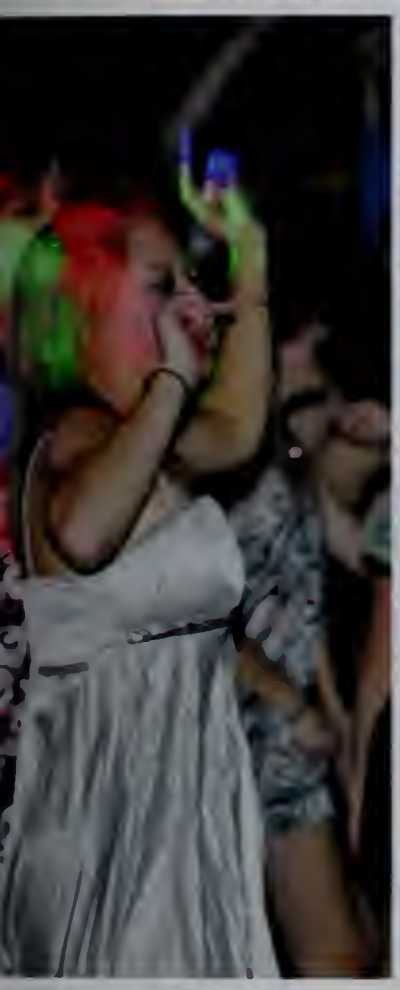


november 27, 2008

When it comes to powderpuff football, the undefeated class of 2009 is a force to be reckoned with. As juniors, they won despite strong competition from the senior class, and as seniors, they just as easily put the class of 2010 to shame. Both games showed the '09 team to be a skilled group of players and coaches.



semi formal



november 26, 2008

As a more relaxed version of the spring prom, every one of the annual semi-formals is always a hit, but it was made sure that this year's would top them all. Everybody managed to ignore the heat of the gymnasium and dance the evening away, waiting anxiously for the new Mr. and Miss Regional to be crowned. By the end of the night, shoes had come off and ties had loosened as Michael Manter and Lisa Boyer won the title.

november 26, 2008

Based on the intense participation of all classes during Spirit Week, everybody knew that Pep Rally was going to be amazing. The senior class crowded into the gymnasium to the sound of the band, and after a series of games, the annual dance between the football players and the cheerleaders commenced. The Rally drew to a close with the reveal of class superlatives, and everyone left with spirits high.

For the first time in history, B-R held a second themed spirit week, courtesy of the senior class. Throughout the week, people came dressed for "Fun in the Sun," Green Day, Wacky Wednesday, Executive Day, and finally, Scrubbin' It Friday. It was a great way to usher in the start of spring and revive spirits in preparation for the upcoming senior events.

march 27, 2009

The tenth annual Mr. B-R pageant was widely considered the best yet, with eleven senior boys competing for the title. Impressive talents, including songwriting, dancing, and even martial arts, were demonstrated, and the night was full of laughs. In the end, Coleman O'Brien ended up winning the crown.

The world was a much different place when we were born, a place of big hair, acid-washed jeans, and $1.03 per gallon gas. Let these next few pages, inspired by the portrait pages of B-R's 1990 and 1991 yearbooks, put our younger years into context.

Kellie:

Our wish for you is that this life becomes all that
You want it to
Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than you can hold
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to
We hope you know that we love you!

Congratulations!

michael manter

To my wonderful son Mikey, where have all the years gone? It seems we were just bringing you to preschool. Now you are graduating high school. I want you to know what a joy you are. Since you could talk you brought love, friendship, and kindness to so many people, especially me, your mom. I have watched you go from a sweet little boy to the most caring sincere young man! You have the biggest heart and I want to thank you for being the best son a mom could ever ask for. Every day you do something to make me proud. This is not the end, only a new chapter in the book of life. You will always have the wonderful friends and memories of high school. I gave you your wings, now it's time to fly. Go make all your dreams come true. Always remember, I love you more than life and I will always be right here for you!

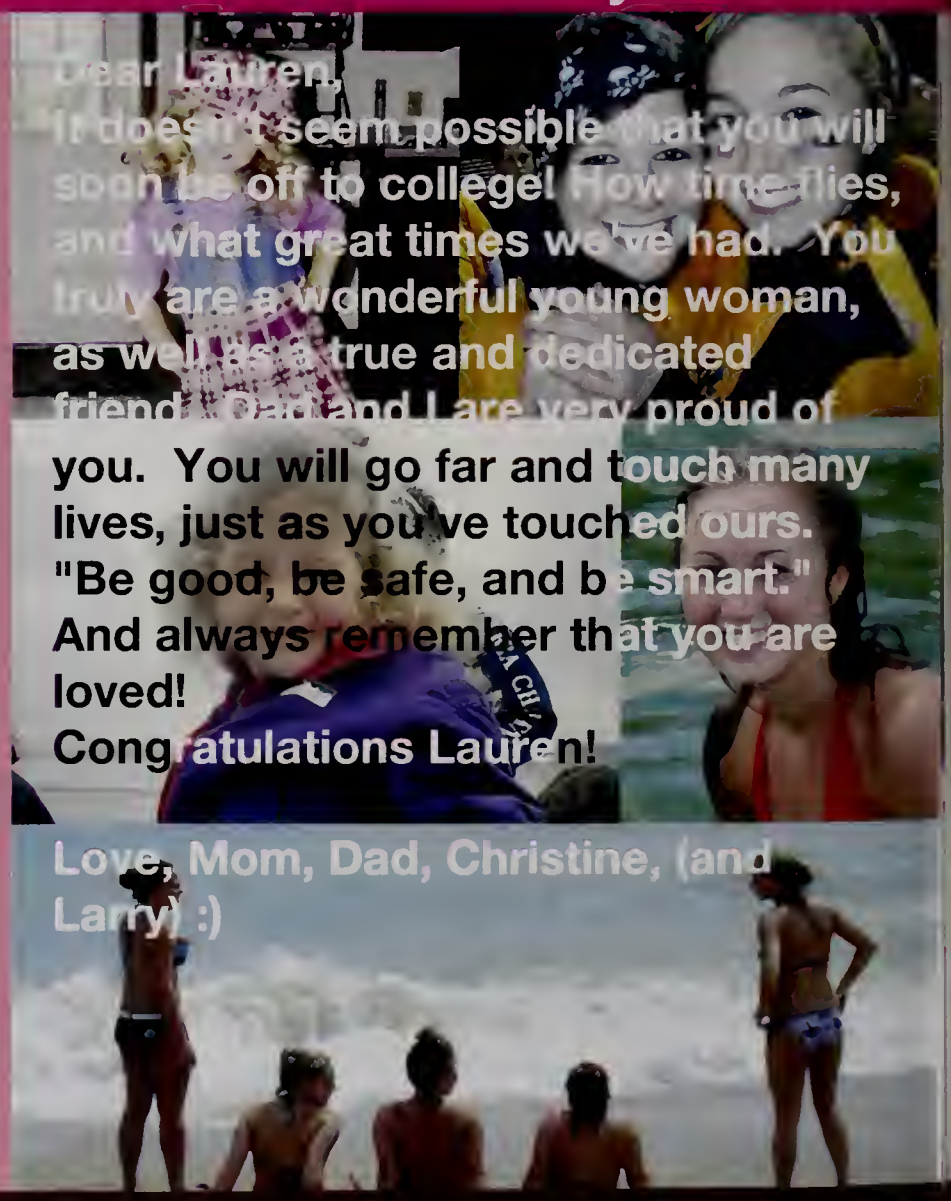
All my love,
Momma

jackie & evan mccarrick

Twice the pride
Twice the fun
Twice the bills soon to come!
Thanks for the B-R memories and for being the great kids you are. We are so proud of you both.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and James

lauren hennessey



meghan larsen

Meghan,
For all that you've done. For all that you've given. To all that you are going to do and become. Our smiles couldn't be bigger and our hearts couldn't be fuller. We're so proud of you! Don't give up your dreams!
Love,
Mom, Dad, Breanna and Tucker
"To the Moon and Back."

from the yearbook advisors

We would like to give special thanks to editor Jimmy Walsh and the rest of the yearbook staff for making this project a huge success. Their dedication and long hours of hard work made it possible to create this recollection of memories for the senior class.
We would also like to thank Mr. Bruce Langlan and the Friends of B-R Athletics for their contribution of photographs and continued support, that helped complete the yearbook.
Best of luck to the Class of 2009!

Miss Arrighi
and
Mr. Sylvia

justina ikewbe

Justina,
We are so proud of you!
We couldn't have asked for a better daughter. Your own daughter is so lucky to have such a wonderful role model. Keep up the good work and you will accomplish your dreams.
We love you,
Mom & Dad

Headline News

Housing Crisis

The housing market hit crisis status in 2008. With the rise in unemployment, one in 10 homeowners was at least one payment behind on their mortgage or in foreclosure. Nationwide, median home prices fell more than 11 percent to $183,000—the largest year-over-year drop on record since 1968.

Billion-dollar Bailout

The U.S. Senate sparked intense debate when it approved a $700 billion plan to rescue Wall Street. The bailout came in response to months of retail sales decline, home foreclosures and record drops in the stock market (dropping 777 points on September 29). Worldwide $30.1 trillion of global stock market value was lost.

Americans Ditch Cars

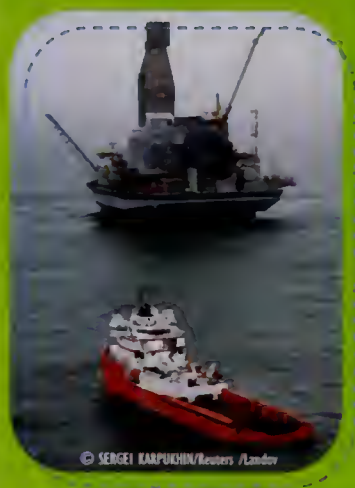
With a recession in full swing and commuters concerned about record gas prices, drivers traded their cars for bikes. The Federal Highway Administration reported that Americans drove 9.6 billion fewer miles over the previous year. With consumers buying fewer cars, the big three American automakers felt the pinch. Seeking relief, they asked for and received a $13.4 billion piece of the federal bailout originally intended for Wall Street.

Hurricane Ike Hits Texas

Thousands of residents evacuated coastal and inland areas of Texas in preparation for Hurricane Ike, which turned out to be the third most destructive hurricane ever to hit the U.S. The early evacuation efforts (put in place after Hurricane Katrina) undoubtedly saved thousands of lives.

Energy Independence

The U.S. Congress agreed with President Bush's decision to lift the almost 20-year ban on offshore drilling operations. The high price of crude oil as well as the strategic importance of energy independence led to the decision.



U.S. Troops

After more than five years of war, plans to reduce the presence of U.S. troops in Iraq were moved forward. A new agreement between U.S. and Iraqi officials was ratified, outlining the withdrawal of U.S. troops by 2011. At the same time, in Afghanistan there were 31,000 U.S. troops, and that number is expected to double in 2009.

Cleared for Takeoff

It's official—Delta bought Northwest Airlines for $3.1 billion, creating the world's largest airline. The combined new airline now serves more than 390 destinations in 67 countries. It is expected to generate about $35 billion in yearly revenue and employ 75,000 people.

Winning against Cancer

New diagnoses and deaths from cancer both fell for the first time in the U.S. according to the National Cancer Institute's 2008 report. The overall death rates fell for the most common cancers, dropping .08 percent annually from 1999 to 2005 for both men and women. While overall cancer rates decreased, lung cancer remains a concern in the Midwest and the South. Both areas have yet to adopt anti-smoking laws that ban smoking in public places or to increase taxes on cigarettes.

Crisis in Gaza

The long-standing conflict in Gaza rose to war when hundreds of civilians lost their lives and thousands were injured in airstrikes and mortar shell attacks waged separately by the Israeli military and Hamas militant groups. Hamas is listed as a terrorist organization by the U.S. and many other Western nations. In January 2009, Israel withdrew its troops and the Hamas groups declared a cease-fire, ending the three-week war; however tensions between the two sides remain high.

Obama Elected 44th President

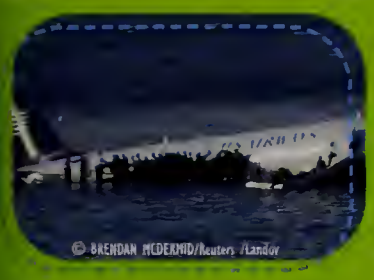
In a historic moment, 47-year-old Barack Obama, a freshman senator from Illinois, became America's first African-American president. In addition to shattering 200 years of history, he became the fifth youngest president ever when he was sworn in to office on January 20, 2009. In his inauguration speech, President Obama delivered a message of bipartisan hope and expectation to a crowd of over one million people in Washington D.C. and to millions more via television and the Internet.

Cease Fire

Following a short yet destabilizing conflict, the governments of Georgia and Russia signed a U.S. brokered cease-fire, which required all Russian troops to withdraw to their pre-invasion positions. The invasion was in response to Georgian suppression of Russian supported separatist rebels in the breakaway region of South Ossetia.

Earthquake Rocks China

A 7.9 magnitude earthquake rocked southwest China leaving 4.8 million people homeless. More than 60,000 people were injured while over 20,000 people lost their lives. To help rebuild the livelihoods, schools and basic services the area needs, several United Nations agencies have set up continuing operations in China.



Prepared for Landing

In January 2009, US Airways' Pilot C.B. "Sully" Sullenberger prepared for impact less than 90 seconds after taking off from LaGuardia International Airport in New York, as Flight 1549's engines went out after hitting a flock of birds. The pilot decided the safest place to land was in the icy waters of the Hudson River. Pilot Sullenberger's skill and quick response saved the lives of all 155 passengers.

$50 Billion Fraud

The former chairman of the Nasdaq Stock Market, Bernard Madoff, was charged with running a $50 billion Ponzi scheme, in one of the biggest fraud cases in history. Madoff could face 20 years in prison and a $5 million fine if convicted. Madoff's actions may have cost some of the largest financial firms in the world hundreds of millions of dollars each.

Adventurer to the End

Almost 13 months after adventurer Steve Fossett disappeared in a single-engine plane over Nevada and a year to the day since the search was called off, hikers found his airplane and remains in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. Fosset holds many world records including being the first person to fly solo nonstop around the world in a hot air balloon.

Mumbai Targeted

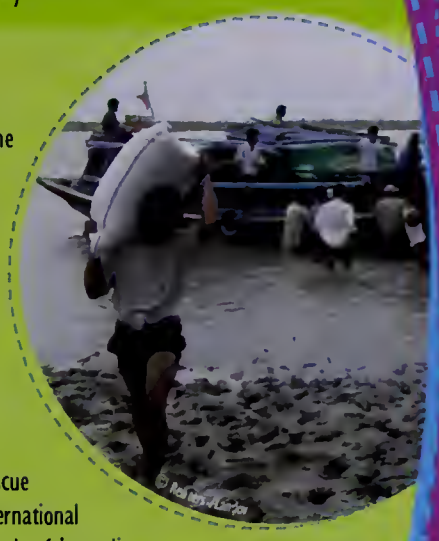
Over three days in November, India's city of Mumbai was attacked by terrorists, allegedly backed by a Pakistani-based Islamic militant group. Over 160 people lost their lives in the planned attack which targeted India's financial center.

Goodnight Nighthawk

After three decades of exemplary service as the first aircraft in history to successfully make use of stealth technology, the F-117 Nighthawk was retired at a private military ceremony. The "Stealth" gained notoriety through now famous camera footage of its precision performance in Desert Storm in the early 1990s.

Myanmar Devastation

A massive cyclone hit the small country of Myanmar in May 2008, tallying an eventual death toll of over 100,000 people. The military government of Myanmar initially refused foreign aid and asserted that it could handle all relief and rescue efforts. According to International Red Cross reports, the lack of immediate international support most likely cost thousands of lives.



An Election to Remember

The nation witnessed several history-making events during the 2008 presidential election.

Alaskan Governor Sarah Palin became the first female Vice Presidential candidate for the Republican Party.

New York Senator Hillary Clinton made a run at America's number one seat as a candidate in the Democratic primary. After withdrawing from the race, Clinton went on to accept the role of Secretary of State in President Obama's administration.

Voters turned out in record numbers with over 133 million Americans showing up at the polls. Social networking websites like YouTube, MySpace and Facebook played a major role in yielding the highest turnout in 40 years.

President Obama's inauguration was visible from space. Satellite images showed the record-breaking 1.8 million people gathered on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. to be a part of the historic event.

Headline News

Kennedy Diagnosed with Cancer

Senator Edward "Ted" Kennedy was diagnosed with a malignant tumor after suffering a seizure. The tumor was located in the 76-year-old politician's left parietal lobe, near the top of his brain. Recommended treatment included a combination of radiation, chemotherapy and surgery to remove as much of the tumor as could be safely done without harming the senator.

Peanut Butter Recall

An outbreak of salmonella traced to tainted peanut butter products prompted President Obama to order a complete review of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration process. The contaminated products sickened 529 people in 43 states and may have led to the deaths of nine people. King Nut, the company charged with distributing the products filed Chapter 7 bankruptcy.

Ivory Legally for Sale

For the second time in nearly two decades, ivory was offered for sale legally. According to the watchdog group CITES, the United Nations-approved ivory sales will be followed by a resting period of nine years to safeguard elephant stocks. The group reported that the elephant population has increased in recent years and the animal is no longer threatened with extinction. The amount of ivory for sale was equal to the yield from 10,000 or more elephants.

Smart Ride

Washington rolled out America's first high-tech bike-sharing program this year. SmartBikes come with key-card locking systems and tracking devices to prevent theft. Denver and Minneapolis launched bike-sharing programs in the summer, with Chicago, San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Oregon and Arlington, Virginia making plans for the near future.

Torch Relay Ignites Protest

Thousands of protesters turned out after the Olympic torch flame arrived in San Francisco, waving flags and signs with sayings like "No human rights, no Olympics." Protestors cited China's actions on Tibet, its policies in Darfur and human rights violations against Chinese citizens. Around the world, similar protests delayed the torch's progress.

Clinton Endorses Obama

After 17 months of campaigning against him, Senator Hillary Clinton officially conceded victory to Barack Obama. Clinton repeatedly called on her supporters to unite behind her former opponent. Even though her campaign was not successful, Senator Clinton paved the way for a woman to win the White House in the future.

Dam in Grand Canyon Bursts

In August 2008, a remote dam in the Grand Canyon region burst, leading to the evacuation of hundreds of residents, campers and visitors. The waterlogged dam burst after a torrential rain accumulated eight inches in two days. The flooding waters poured into Cataract and Supai Canyon, washing out some hiking trails and footbridges.

China Tackles Quake Lakes

In the aftermath of China's massive earthquake, as many as 35 "quake lakes" were formed, threatening to flood surrounding villages. In an attempt to drain the lakes, Chinese troops deployed tons of earth-moving equipment and explosives to clear debris and create a spillway to relieve water pressure. Just one of the so-called quake lakes held nearly 130 million cubic meters, equal to about 50,000 Olympic-size swimming pools.

Space Travel

Traveling to space is a childhood dream for many people and soon they could achieve it. Virgin Galactic, owned by billionaire Richard Branson, unveiled plans for their suborbital spaceliner. Test flights began in the summer of 2008. Tickets are being offered for an initial price of $200,000.

In the Doghouse

Killys, a 70-pound pit bull, went for a joy ride that started and ended at an Oklahoma car wash when he was left alone in a car and accidentally slipped it into reverse. After crossing the highway and hitting a curb, the car turned and circled back to the car wash. The dog couldn't quite reach the brakes and crashed into the side of the building. No one was injured and the police officer on the scene let the bewildered dog off with a warning.

Medal of Honor

Army Master Sgt. Woodrow "Woody" Keeble was awarded the Medal of Honor nearly 26 years after his death for his heroic efforts during the Korean War. Keeble was the first full-blooded Sioux Indian to receive the honor and the 10th person to receive the medal from President Bush. Keeble's family, fellow soldiers, tribal members and four U.S. senators lobbied for years to approve the nomination.

Extreme Thin Outlawed

French lawmakers presented a bill banning the glamorization of extreme thinness. The bill recommends fines of up to $71,000 and three years in prison for people or businesses that promote extreme thinness. If the bill passes, the law would be the strongest of its kind anywhere in the world.

Russian Blue Wins

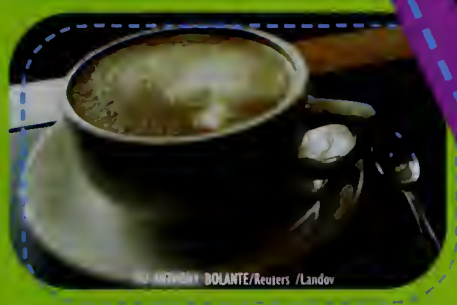
Fishy Business

Beth Nudelman quickly notified officials of their mistake when she received voter registration material for her deceased goldfish, Princess. The paperwork sent to "Princess Nudelman" likely came from the Women's Voices, Women Vote project, which sent nearly 1 million mailings to Illinois households using a list that mistakenly included pets.

Hands On

The American Heart Association announced that the "hands on" CPR method works just as well as the mouth-to-mouth technique in most cases of cardiac arrest. The announcement will hopefully encourage hesitant bystanders to step forward to provide life-saving CPR in critical situations.



Warm the Heart

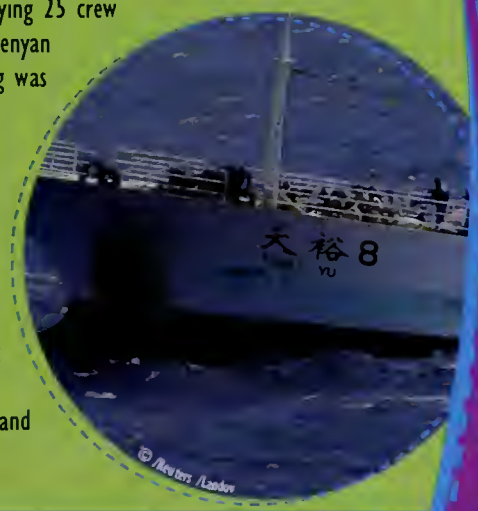
A recent study suggests that people view others more positively when they're holding something warm, like a cup of coffee or cocoa. The experimenters suggest that the connection between heat and emotion is a result of early associations in childhood.

Smoking Genes

Scientists identified genetic variations that raise the risk of lung cancer in smokers. The research also revealed evidence to suggest that these variations could make carriers more addicted to tobacco.

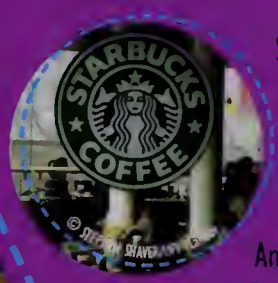
Pirates Hijack Tankers

In the largest modern-day case of piracy on the high seas, pirates seized a massive Saudi-owned oil supertanker loaded with crude oil and carrying 25 crew members off the Kenyan coast. The hijacking was one of several attacks this year by Somali pirates seeking ransoms. After taking over the vessel, the pirates took it to a Somali port that has become a haven for bandits and seized ships.



Economic Ups & Downs

With the economy in turmoil, unemployment rose to 7.2 percent. More than 2.6 million jobs were lost in 2008, the highest number since World War II.



Starbucks, the reigning king of coffee, announced that it would close 600 stores. With increased competition from McDonald's and Americans making financial sacrifices, the coffee chain faced an uncertain future.

Despite economic instability, Google chose to keep employee perks, like ping pong and free lunches, as other companies slashed costs and benefits. Google maintains that their laid-back atmosphere leads to devoted and focused employees.

Many teens were not troubled by the economic crisis. In a survey of 769 high school students, 8 percent owned an iPhone and 22 percent expected to buy one in the next six months.

Teens Take Title

A high school team from Miami Killian High School in Kendall, Florida beat out students from 23 universities to take the Shell Eco-marathon grand prize for designing, building and driving a vehicle that went the farthest distance using the least amount of fuel. The three-member crew's gasoline engine car achieved an amazing 2,813.1 miles per gallon. The students won $13,000 for their ingenuity.

Bird, Mammal or Reptile?

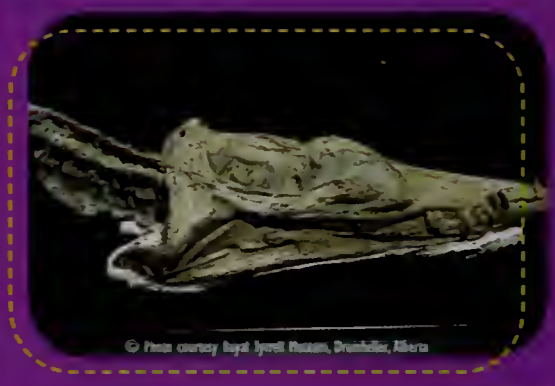
One of the most curious animals on the planet, the platypus, has a duck's bill, mammal fur and snake-like venom. Scientists mapped its genetic makeup, which indicates that this strange looking creature is, in fact, a little bit of all three—bird, mammal and reptile.

Earth Invades Mars

Beware the attack of Martian invading Earth! Not to quote bad Hollywood sci-fi movies but on May 2008, NASA's Phoenix Lander arrived on Mars and for the first time successfully set down the first Earth spacecraft on the Red Planet.

Trash to Gas

The high price of gas in 2008 put a spotlight on the study of alternative fuel sources. In America, at the University of California at Davis, engineers repurposed table scraps into bio-gas. In similar studies in the United Kingdom and Japan, jellyfish, spoiled milk and confectionary waste were all given new life as alternative fuel sources.



Ancient Sea Creature Discovered

A new group of plesiosaurs, a [illegible] species that swam in ancient seas, was discovered in North America. The plesiosaurs roamed during the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods—about 65-245 million years ago. This find represents one of the most complete skeletons of a prehistoric aquatic reptile ever discovered in North America.

Shipwreck Treasure

Geologists searching for diamonds off the coast of Africa discovered a treasure far more rare—a shipwreck loaded with gold and silver coins, as well as ivory and cannons used to fend off pirates. The ship is thought to be around 500 years old, dating back to the time of Vasco de Gama and Christopher Columbus.

Run Green

Did you know that a running shoe can last 1,000 years in a landfill? Brooks® has designed a shoe that reduces your carbon footprint—literally. The shoe features a new kind of midsole called BioMoGo, which degrades 50 times faster than a standard running shoe. Brooks® estimates that its green footwear will reduce 30 million pounds of landfill waste over a 20-year period.

Farms of the Future

In the future, farms could rise straight into the air resembling skyscrapers instead of sprawling acres of land. "Vertical" farming presents many advantages over traditional farming, mainly growing more food on less land. Currently, it takes a plot of land as large as Virginia to grow enough food for approximately 8 million people.

Sustainable Dave

Entrepreneur Dave Chamberlain embarked on a [illegible] to reduce his carbon footprint. He drove all around all of his local for one year—only 315 miles. By comparing the average family drives, only 1,100 lbs of [illegible] Chamberlain conducted numerous test drives in [illegible] and realized that "we are the everything that consumes and consumes and consumes."

Stone or Glass?

Add countertops to the list of eco-friendly products. BottleStone, a Los Altos Hills company that makes ceramic stone countertops out of recycled glass, walked away with the $100,000 prize from the CleanTech Open, a contest showcasing the newest innovations in the world of sustainability. The company said that zero emissions are created in the production of the new surface material, yet the glass countertops are as strong as concrete and cost less than marble or granite.

Tejon Ranch Protected

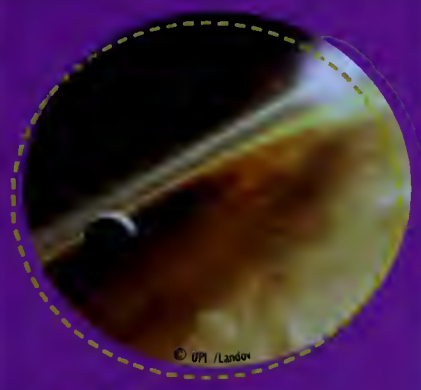
Conservationists and developers in California reached a historic agreement that will permanently protect the Tejon Ranch, 240,000 acres of land just north of Los Angeles. The newly protected area provides a critical habitat to many wildlife species. The strong support for environmental conservation is a sign of the times and will guarantee public access for generations to come.

Running on Air

Zero Pollution Motors, together with automaker MDI, plans to produce an affordable, environmentally-friendly car powered by air. While it won't run like a sports car, it can reach speeds of 35 miles per hour for 60 miles on a tank of compressed air, a sufficient distance for 80 percent of consumers to commute to work and run errands. On highways, it can cruise at interstate speeds for 800 miles with a small motor that compresses outside air to keep the tank fueled. Vehicle sales are slated for 2011.

Quarter-Sized Slither

A U.S. scientist discovered the world's tiniest species of snake, measuring only four inches long, on the island of Barbados in the Caribbean. Out of 3,100 known snake species, the newly named Zootaxa snake is so small it can curl up to the size of a quarter.



Super Earth Planets Discovered

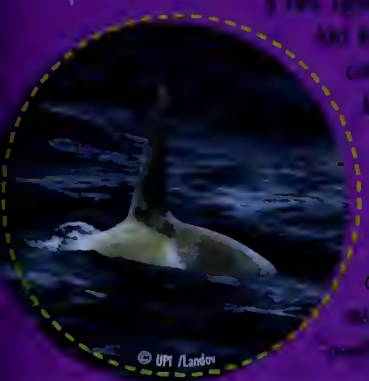
Astronomers discovered 45 "super Earth" planets, indicating that one-third of all stars have a solar system in orbit with planets similar to Earth in size. Don't hold out for tiny green men, these planets orbit close to their stars (measuring mean temperatures of 354 degrees Fahrenheit) and cannot harbor life.

Colossal Carats

A potentially record-breaking diamond, totalling 478 carats, was found in the small southern African country of Lesotho. Although not the largest diamond found to date, this particular stone is valued for having the highest possible color rating for a white diamond and its potential to produce a polished stone of over 100 carats—now that's a rock!

Elusive White Whale Spotted

A rare sighting of a white killer whale and accompanying fan club cameras. The scientific team on board the Ocean Dyson spotted the mostly mythical creature off Alaska's Aleutian Islands. According to the research biologist who snapped a photo of the animal's back and fin, it was the equivalent of finding a needle in a haystack.



Find at Ferry Farm

George Washington's boyhood home was discovered at Ferry Farm, along the Rappahannock River near Fredericksburg, Virginia. The exciting find revealed many artifacts that could have been used by Washington while he lived on the farm from 1738-1754. Archaeologists were able to piece together the home's structure, making it possible to build a replica.

Solar Wind Source Found

With the help of images shot from the Hinode space observatory, scientists pinpointed the source of the stream of particles that make up slow solar wind. Astronomers knew where fast solar wind originated but knew little about slow solar wind. Now scientists know that it comes from the region above the Sun's equator allowing them to better understand the dynamics of space weather and solar storms.

Under the Sea

A recent survey revealed thousands of discoveries from beneath the waves in the Pacific including a city of sponges and a carpet of crustaceans. The Census of Marine Life is part of a worldwide project to understand the ocean. The census is expected to reveal important information about 230,000 known marine species and possibly identify more than 5,500 new species.

Eye on the Environment

Around the globe, evidence of climate change continued to make news.

In 2008, a 160-square mile chunk of Antarctic ice—seven times bigger than Manhattan—broke away, placing more glacial ice at risk.

Carbon dioxide is entering the atmosphere at a faster rate than plants and oceans can absorb it.

More than a million species face extinction due to climate change including the polar bear, which in May 2008 was officially added to the list of endangered species.

Some scientists warn that sea levels could rise as much as 23 inches by the century's end. Rises of just four inches could flood many South Sea Islands and swamp large parts of Southeast Asia.

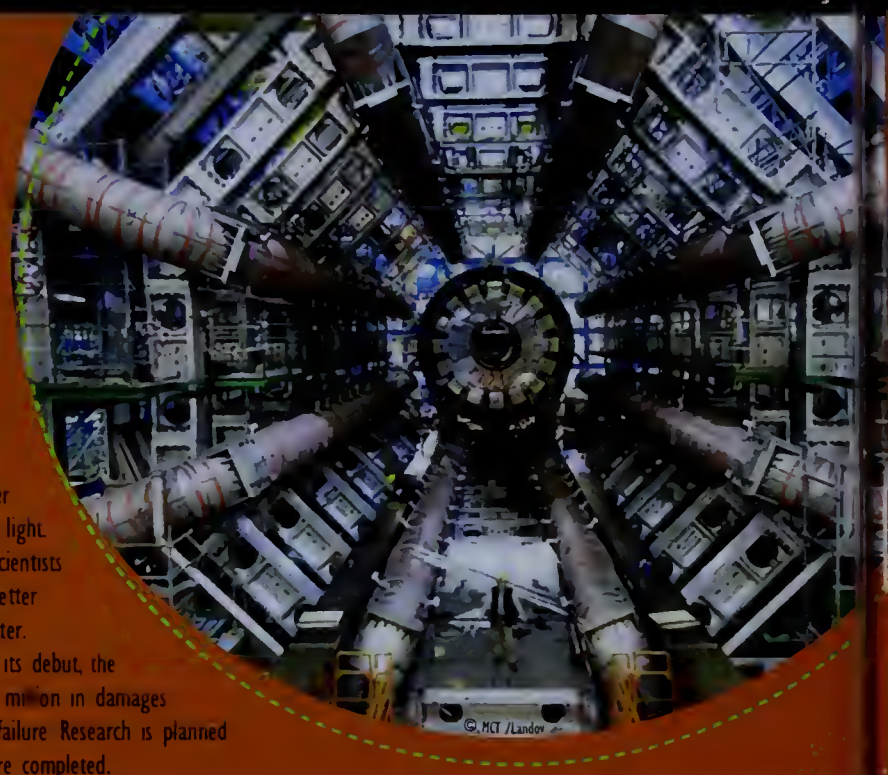
Tech Topics

Walk This Way

Discovering new ways to generate energy is a top priority. Kinesiologist Max Donelan from Simon Fraser University invented a device that harvests energy from the simple and routine act of walking. The 3.5 lbs. device wraps around each knee generating five watts of power—enough to charge 10 cell phones.

Large Hadron Collider

Scientists at the European Organization for Nuclear Research developed the Large Hadron Collider (LHC) that smashes atom protons together at 99.9999% of the speed of light. The $9 billion device allows scientists to test physics theories and better understand the nature of matter. Unfortunately, nine days after its debut, the "atom smasher" suffered $21 million in damages as the result of an electrical failure. Research is planned to resume after the repairs are completed.



Get a Life-Form

It's not what "they" will think of next, but what gamers will create in their own video game experience. Spore™, the new game by Will Wright, the creator of SimCity and the Sims, allows players to design their own unique life-form and manage every aspect of its progression through centuries.

Floating Ads

Created by a company called Flogo, these new floating advertisements can take the shape of anything you want—from simple messages to images of superheroes. The "clouds" are made by combining soap-based foams with lightweight gases such as helium. The company uses re-purposed artificial snow machines to create the floating ads which last 30-40 minutes on average and don't pollute the environment.

Let's Get Chumby

The newest form of on-the-go entertainment, Chumby connects to your wi-fi to keep you up-to-date on your favorite music, podcasts, celebrity news, videos, games, photos and more. Chumby technology delivers your favorite parts of the Internet, leaving the keyboard and computer behind.

Computer Hears

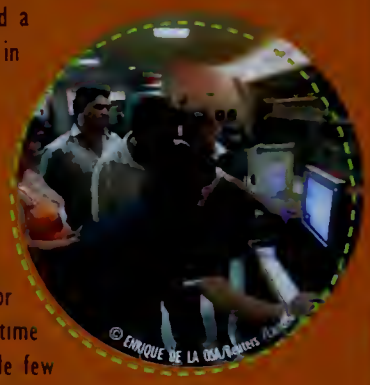
Dictation software is nothing new but Nuance's Dragon® NaturallySpeaking® 10 is the first program on the market that adjusts for the different ways people speak. The program recognizes eight accents including Australian, British, Spanish and Southern United States and understands basic commands such as "italicize" and "search." Now if it could only do your homework.

Back in the Swim of Things

Pierre, a 25-year-old penguin at the California Academy of Sciences, was losing his feathers. Without waterproof feathers penguins cannot survive the cold. An aquatic biologist created a wetsuit for him like the ones humans wear making it possible for him to join his fully-feathered friends.

Cuba Gets Wired

Desktop computers, a technology that is considered a necessity in the U.S., became available to Cuba's public market for the first time ever. While few could afford the QTech computers that cost nearly $800, electronic stores throughout Cuba drew crowds of excited onlookers.



Superhuman Contacts

Soon you may be able to use bionic contacts to zoom in on distant objects, displaying useful facts about what you see. These super-power lenses use tiny light-emitting-diodes (LEDs) powered by solar cells and a radio frequency receiver to display images and information in midair. The invention could prove beneficial to drivers and pilots as well as video gamers by projecting directions and speed within their view, eliminating the need for external screens.

Clean Keys

Seal Shield LLC introduced the world's first fully submersible, dishwasher safe, anti-microbial, glow-in-the-dark keyboard. The Silver Seal Flex keyboards have the potential to reduce the risk of getting sick from colds and other communicable diseases.

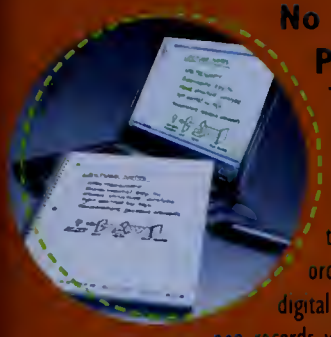
Going Digital

U.S. households prepared for television's final transition from analog to digital. To help consumers absorb the cost of a necessary converter box, the government issued $40 vouchers. The Obama administration sought support from Congress to postpone the transition after the Commerce Department reached its funding limit. The request was passed by the Senate as consumers continued to prepare for the digital switch.

Off the Chain

No need to worry about pinching your finger or getting your pants stuck in a bike chain. Wisconsin-based Trek Bicycle introduced two models of chainless bikes that move using the same technology as motorcycles and snowmobiles. These bikes are low maintenance, environmentally friendly and light weight making them ideal for city commuters.

No Ordinary Pen



The Pulse™ smartpen developed by Livescribe is the latest "it" gadget that transforms an ordinary pen into a digital tool. The high-tech pen records what you hear or say while writing, plays back your recordings and provides visual cues on a tiny imbedded display screen. The information can then be downloaded to your computer for easy editing.

You Play, i.play

Playgrounds in the U.K. are taking on a new look with the i.play system. This breakthrough combines interactive electronics with conventional playground equipment. The system's intelligent design adjusts according to a child's performance to keep them engaged and moving.

Goodbye Dentist Drill

It won't get you out of your yearly dental checkups, but the dentist drill could soon be gone. Scientists began development on a formula to allow teeth to re-grow the crystals that make up dentin and enamel; materials that make teeth the strongest element in the body.

Sitting on Cloud 9

Forget sandy beaches, the British have a new way to relax: an acrylic lounger that can hover in midair. The gravity-defying chair developed by Hoverit LTD works by repelling magnetic forces producing the sensation of floating on a cloud.

High-Tech Gift Cards

Retailers went high-tech with gift cards to entice consumers. Best Buy created a card with tiny speakers and a headphone jack allowing users to listen to their favorite music, while Target® introduced a 1.2 megapixel camera gift card. Lucky recipients enjoyed two gifts in one.

Design for a Cause

Dell unveiled an exclusive gallery of artistic designs that consumers may purchase to personalize their laptop. With every sale, Dell contributes $20 to The Global Fund, a charity helping AIDS patients in Africa.

Bionic Hand

The world's first bionic hand was created by Touch Bionics. The iLimb's revolutionary motorized fingers have the ability to grasp narrow objects and the power to hold heavier objects like coffee cups, giving users more independence.

The Auto Age

One-hundred years ago the Ford Model T was introduced. In the years to follow, vehicle technology and innovation continued to evolve.

The Model T changed the face of transportation when Henry Ford began using the conveyor belt for production, making cars affordable for the masses. Following in its footsteps came the "family utility" vehicles, the station wagon (1947), mini van (1983) and SUV (1990), accommodating the growing needs of busy families.

Hybrid technology emerged as consumers demanded fuel efficiency. Honda's Insight, the first hybrid marketed in the U.S. led the way for many other top automakers to develop their own line of gas/electric vehicles.

In the Next 100 Years, automakers plan to push automotive technology even farther by promoting eco-chic cars, electrically powered luxury vehicles for drivers who don't want to compromise strong design for environmental friendliness.

Test Your NASA Knowledge

Win for Shin

Twenty-year-old Ji-Yai Shin of South Korea became the first non-LPGA member to win three LPGA events with her win at the ADT Championship, marking her 11th worldwide victory in 2008. The event was bittersweet for women's golf legend Annika Sorenstam who failed to make the cut in her last official LPGA tournament before retirement.

Tiger Tamed

After winning the U.S. Open, golf legend Tiger Woods announced that he had been playing with a leg injury. Despite his injury, Tiger played 91 holes, defeating Rocco Mediate on the 19th hole of the playoff. Woods chose to end his season early to treat his injury. The famous golfer has 65 victories; ranking third of all-time on the PGA Tour with 14 professional majors, making him second only to the record 18 won by Jack Nicklaus.

Hole-in-One Times Five!

Amateur golfer Curt Hocker of central Illinois hit five hole-in-ones in one week at the El Paso Golf Club. The 22-year-old, who works in the club's pro shop, has recorded seven aces (five on par-4s) and two other double eagles in the past year. Hocker, along with his friends and family who witnessed his strokes of luck, is mystified by the repeat performances.

MLS Cup Glory

For the first time in franchise history, the Columbus Crew became Major League Men's Soccer champions with a 3-1 win over the New York Red Bulls. League MVP Guillermo Barros Schelotto scored a Cup Final-record three assists to help deliver the championship in only his second season.

Kickin'!

The U.S. Women's Soccer National Team captured the Algarve Cup once again, defeating Denmark 2-1 at Municipal Stadium in Portugal. The Scoop

Sole Survivor

Thanks to decades of fans who have adopted Converse shoes as part of their rock-star wardrobe the company celebrated its 100-year anniversary. Converse reinvented classic designs in its Century footwear collection to honor its achievement.

Text Mania

Figures show that traditional landlines are becoming a thing of the past. The cell phone is increasingly important, especially for tweens and teens whose personal style is expressed with cell phone accessories and whose communication revolves around email and text messaging. According to Neilson ratings, the average teenager texts 1,742 times per month—that's an average of 58 times per day!

Tough Guys Rule

"Tough Guy TV"—reality shows chronicling the lives of men in life-threatening professions, from king crab fishermen to ice road truckers to adventurers relying on survival skills in the wilderness, is dominating the airwaves. This new genre has audiences riveted with its realism, documentary-style format and unpredictable action. The Discovery Channel's shows Deadliest Catch and Man vs. Wild are among cable TV's highest-rated unscripted series.

100 Years of FBI

Established in 1908 by the Attorney General, the Federal Bureau of Investigation started with only 34 special agents. Today, the FBI, headquartered in Washington D.C., employs over 30,000 people including more than 1,200 special agents and over 18,000 professional support staff in offices around the world.

Box Office Gold

Disney's High School Musical 3: Senior Year banked $42 million in its opening weekend. The big screen sequel to the Disney Channel TV movies, starring Zac Efron and Vanessa Hudgens, beat the previous record for best opening weekend of $27.8 million set by Mamma Mia.

Long Overdue

A library book checked out from a Tulsa, Oklahoma high school in 1947 was returned 61 years later. The book, New World Analysis: Or, School Etymology of English Derivative Words was discovered by the woman who had originally checked it out when she was cleaning her home. She sent the book back to the library with a note and a check for $250 to cover any late charges.

Superhero Fans Rejoice

Forty-five years after it was created by Stan Lee and Jack Kirby, X-Men fans celebrated the 500th issue of the popular comic book. The anniversary was marked with a surprise move: the outcast heroes left their Westchester, New York mansion for San Francisco.
